

PHILATELIC ASSOCIATION

IN MEMORIAM:

James P. Flynn

1907 - 1980

The following stories are taken from Jim Flynn's article "Revolutionary History" which appeared in the ROPEX-76 Program and are reprinted here as a remembrance.

During the Revolutionary War, many foreign mercenary soldiers sought asylum in this country. They feared that they would be sent to other wars if they returned to their native Hesse. One such sickly Hessian soldier married and settled in a Pennsylvania town. Too sickly for the robust work of farming, he opened a small store. He made sausages and his wife made salads and baked goods for him to sell. The people liked his store and admired his pluck, despite his delicate health. They frequently told their friends to go over to the Delicate Hessian's Store and buy some of his good food.

One day, while his wife was out on an errand, the Hessian waited on a man who wanted some sausage. Having no money, the customer offered the shopkeeper a fine bird that he had shot and the deal was concluded. Later when the Hessian's wife returned, he related the transaction. Looking at the bird his wife said, "It looks like you have taken a Tern for the Wurst".

Many have heard Washington's famous words to his officers enjoining them to, "Let none but Americans be on guard tonight". However, many do not finish the saying which continued, "and let the Irish sleep, for there's going to be a great deal of fighting in the morning".

Dear Friends,

On behalf of the Rochester Philatelic Association and the ROPEX-81 Committee, it gives me great pleasure to welcome you to ROPEX-81. We hope you will find your stay here both educational and entertaining.

A special welcome to the members and prospective members of the United States Possessions Philatelic Association.

On Saturday afternoon a Judging Seminar, presented by the Chief Judge of APS, Bernard A. Hennig, gives you the opportunity to fulfill one of the requirements for becoming an accredited APS judge. This is a valuable experience for the exhibitor as well as the apprentice judge. There is no pre-registration required for this seminar.

ATA Chief Judge, George T. Guzzio, will be the principle speaker at the Awards Banquet Saturday evening. As one of the few cross-accredited APS/ATA judges, Mr. Guzzio's viewpoint often is both enlightening and entertaining.

I invite you to study the exhibits and to spend time with the fine selection of bourse dealers. The United States Postal Service is also available to serve you.

I hope to meet you either at ROPEX-81, or at one of our RPA meetings. We meet the second and fourth Thursdays of each month at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, on the corner of Vick Park B and East Avenue, at 8 PM.

Thank you for coming to ROPEX-81. We appreciate your sharing your time and interest with us. If there is anything we may do to make your stay more pleasant or memorable, please do not hesitate to ask.

Very truly yours,

Nancy B. Zielinski
